THE CHURCH IN THE CATACOMBS

In so many ways, the life and spirituality of Saint Philip Neri are rooted in the holy ground of the Catacombs. Long before these were excavated and opened to the faithful, he would spend long hours there in prayer. It was there that he received his unique experience of the Holy Spirit.

This summer, we enter the Catacombs in union with Saint Philip. We shall investigate the events in the history of the Church that necessitated an "underground" Church. Several lectures will discuss the development of the Catacombs, their art, and the lives of the many saints whose remains were buried there. Of course, we'll also talk about Saint Philip's experience in the Catacombs and why he drew such inspiration there for his work of Church reform.

Participants should have completed the First Session (Introductory Survey), either this year or previously.
